5 FAIL TO FLEE ALCATRAZ

Stewart Says— Pan-American Axis Is Likely to Outlast the European Kind

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Next to Secretary of State Cordell Hull it is clear that Alfred M. Landon did more than any other single member of the Yankee delegation at the recent Pan-American conference toward making a reasonable, even if a slightly qualified, success of the gathering in Lima, Peru.

Alfred Landon

Hull, Landon and associates did not get quite after but they got fully a fair share of it. The southern republics heartily agreed with Uncle Sam that all hands are a unit in opposing anybody's interference with their various western hemispherical interests and independence. The only thing that Hull, Landon & Co. wanted but failed to include in the New World countries' joint declaration of principles was a specific expression of hostility to OUTSIDE interference in their affairs—of course particularly meaning interference by Germany, Italy or Japan. Make it was just as well, in a way, that the declaration did not specify with unmistakable particularity. As Senator Robert R. Reynolds remarks, hatred is unprofitable; it is injurious to the hater, but not necessarily injurious to the hatee. A lot of us surely do hate Hitler and Mussolini. Still, is it desirable to put it formally on record?

The really unpleasant implication is that some of our Latin New Worldlings consider that we (the U. S. A.) may yet try to be as domineering over them as Germany, Italy and Japan doubtless would like to be. Hence they remain a bit suspicious of us, too; in voicing disapproval of outside interference in their affairs they hint at a recollection that we have been interfering outsiders in Latin America several times in the past.

Argentine Suspicions

Argentina was the outspokenly suspicious republic. Her Lima delegates said frankly:

"To be sure, Uncle Samuel is a good neighbor now, but how can we be certain that he will stay so?"

I cannot but sympathize with a modicum of this skepticism.

We took Texas and considerable adjoining territory away from Mexico. We have a Vera Cruz land, and to our discredit. We deprived Colombia of Panama. Admiral Robley Evans said, referring to the Chileans, "If they fire on my ships all hell will smell of garlic"—a most undiplomatic utterance. We have had marines ashore in Nicaragua, Cuba, Haiti and Santo Domingo.

And the cantankerous Argentinians?

Why, when the United States entered the World War, Argentina saw fit to remain neutral—which was its privilege. However, a United States war squadron under Admiral Caperton was ordered to make the rounds of southern ports, to give an appearance of Pan-American solidarity. It was all right as to Rio de Janeiro and Montevideo, for Brazil and Uruguay were official belligerents, though not active. Argentina objected, being neutral. Nevertheless Caperton's squadron stayed at Buenos Aires for a fortnight, forcibly fracturing Argentine neutrality.

My, but the Argentinians were angry! They were not so pro-German, either. In those war days I saw riots in which German shops were sacked in Buenos Aires. Besides, Germany's ambassador there made himself obnoxious and the government interned him on an island in the Rio de la Plata.

Hull's Gentle System
Secretary Hull could have wrecked that Lima conference and foreclosed all future Pan-American conferences by assuming an unyielding attitude toward the Argentine. He did not do it, thereby winning the whole outfit.

And Landon backed him perfectly.

It was a stroke of genius, putting that Kansan on our Lima delegation.

It would not have been, if Landon had not proved to be so ideal a selection. But he did. He could not have been improved on. The contrary-wise-ness of his political partisanship anomalously was exactly what was needed to solidify Uncle Sam's position at the Lima conference.

The best candidate at the last presidential election could completely have crashed the game at Lima, had he elected to do so.

Instead he made a corking success of it.

He comes back a wonder at the game of inter-American diplomacy. That conference has made him a blamed sight bigger man than he was as a presidential candidate.

SKIERS MET THURSDAY

Gustaveson Almost Certain To Go To Try-Outs; Roy Mikkelsen Is Speaker

George Gustaveson, twice state cross-country ski champion, is almost certain to go to the try-outs for the national ski team which will represent the U. S. in the International Ski Championships in Norway in 1940, it was reported by the special committee in charge at Thursday night's meeting of the Placerville Ski Club.

The meeting was held at the courthouse and featured the appearance of Roy Mikkelsen, Auburn Ski Club star and former national jumping champion, who spoke and showed several reels of motion pictures.

Mikkelsen said Gustaveson is in training near the Donner summit and is in fine shape and also in excellent spirits. His training jaunts, Mikkelsen said, show him setting a strong pace and apparently in tip-top shape.

Skiers report there is a possibility that the try-outs, originally scheduled to be held near Chicago, may be held at Salt Lake City instead.

Mikkelsen showed pictures of the 1937 down mountain and slalom championships, held at Yosemite, and also a reel of scenic views near the Donner summit and pictures of a meet held at Mineral on June 27, 1937.

His talk concerned a review of his participation in the 1936 Olympics, and about the jumping competition, which was witnessed by 200,000 spectators.

Pardon Asked For Billings

Mooney Case Associate Contends Testimony In Trial Was Perjured

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Application for pardon of Warren K. Billings from Folsom prison, where he is serving a life sentence under conviction of participating in the 1916 San Francisco preparedness day bombing, was on file today with Gov. Culbert L. Olson.

Attorney George T. Davis, who made the application in behalf of Billings, said he believed Governor Olson would ask the state supreme court for a favorable recommendation, necessary because Billings is a second offender. Without the high court recommendation, Olson is without power to grant a pardon.

Billings, in a statement released by Davis, called attention to Olson's unconditional pardon of Thomas J. Mooney and claimed he was convicted on the same "perjured testimony."

LONDON-ROME TALK FAILS

Spanish Civil War Is Stumbling Block To Chamberlain's Plan

By WEBB MILLER

ROME (Copyright 1939 by United Press) — Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's visit to Premier Benito Mussolini has proved a failure, it was indicated today. The result was expected to be the virtual abandonment of Chamberlain's "appeasement" policy and a hardening of the division line between the democracies and the dictatorships of Europe.

The Spanish civil war seemed to have been the stumbling block. Mr. Mussolini had hoped to get Chamberlain to recognize the Spanish nationalists as belligerents so they could legally blockade the loyalist coasts and starve the government into surrender quickly. Instead, it was indicated, Chamberlain asked Mussolini to make good his promise of last April, when the British-Italian friendship agreement was negotiated, and take his own troops out of Spain.

Mussolini refused, it was understood, and at the same time Count Galeazzo Ciano, his foreign minister, and son-in-law, was reported to have told Viscount Halifax, British foreign secretary, that the nationalists expected to enter Barcelona within a few weeks.

A most important angle of the present situation was the urgency with which the British delegates made it their business to inform the ambassadors of friendly nations of their progress—or rather their lack of progress.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY ADVANCES PLANS ON BUILDING

At a meeting of the county Historical Society, held Thursday night at the courthouse, the report of the building committee was presented.

The report, filed by C. A. Barker, chairman, indicated the committee has under consideration a centrally located site which it is proposed to lease.

The meeting of the membership authorized the committee to proceed looking toward a conclusion of the lease, and it was announced that the committee will meet Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Members of the society were reluctant to state for publication at this time the location of the building which they have in mind.

The county hoop league went through the second round of its schedule Thursday night at the Cougar "coop" and the result of the end of the first week of play is a five-way tie for top position, with Snowline at the half-way post and the American Legion quint in the cellar.

In Thursday night's games, Twenty-Three joined the "upper crust" by trimming the Legion, 27 to 21, to send the latter quint into the cellar with two games lost in as many starts.

The DeMolay quint also rose to the top in its skirmish with Snowline, which had defeated the Legion in the first round. The DeMolays won 20 to 16 and Snowline stands mid-way in the percentages.

Mosquito CCC camp took a 22 to 8 win from the Native Sons to gain a position among the first five.

On Tuesday night, The Forest Service meets the Native Sons, the American Legion goes against the Cougars, and Twenty-Three tackles Texaco.

On Thursday night, it's the Legion against DeMolay; Native Sons against the All-Stars and Twenty-Three against the Forest Service.

Tot's Absence Unexplained

2-Year-Old Safe At Home After 34 Hours; Found Under Nearby House

PHOENIX, ARIZ. (UP)—Yvonne Lee, 2, the object of a 34-hour search by hundreds of citizens and police, was returned home today. She was suffering from exposure that threatened pneumonia after a small boy found her under his home.

Officers were undecided if she had been kidnapped, as first feared. They didn't believe that she could have been placed under the house, a block from her home, without being seen by scores of searchers. Her clothing was little soiled and she was unscratched by glass and wire under the house however and her mother, Mrs. Cleo Lee, said that her shoes were tied differently.

Sheriff Lon Jordan first believed the child had crawled beneath the house through a ventilator while playing with a dog. Wednesday night, the first after she wandered from home, the temperature was near freezing.

30 Inches Of Snow On Summit For Skiers

According to the snow report mailed Thursday night by the El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce for the information of winter sports fans, there are thirty inches of snow at the summit, sixteen inches at Camp Sacramento and five inches at Twin Bridges. Skiing conditions are described as "excellent."

"Shooting Stars" Are Out In Coloma Area

The wildflower identified by the name "shooting star" is in bloom in the Coloma area, and Bob Bergantz called at this office Friday morning with two or three he had picked to prove the assertion.

Wasn't the winter awful?

Fred Schenck, of French Creek section, was a visitor in the county seat Thursday, attending to business matters.

WHISKERINOS TO VISIT COLOMA

Excursion to Placerville On January 24th Announced By Sacramento Officials

SACRAMENTO — On the 91st anniversary of the discovery of gold in California, January 24, a special train carrying officials, Whiskerinos and several hundred Sacramentans will leave here for Placerville and Coloma.

The train will be one of the last passenger trains ever to make the trip to Placerville. The line will be abandoned January 30 in accord with a decision by the railroad commission several days ago because only an average of six persons use the line now and because the revenue amounts to only one-half the cost of operation.

Fifty years ago, when work on the line was completed, city officials and approximately 420 persons and an army band made the first trip in a seven-car special.

Plans are now being completed, Arthur S. Dudley, secretary-manager of Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, revealed last night, to make this "semi-final" trip as gala as the initial one in 1888 if possible.

In addition, however, Dudley said, after a program at the Placerville depot with the Placerville Chamber of Commerce cooperating, the party will continue to Coloma where the first nugget of gold was found on January 24, 1848, by James W. Wicks.

Present plans are that a gigantic barbecue will be held there with an appropriate program.

The train will return to Sacramento in time for a larger program commemorating the discovery to be held at 8 p. m. in Memorial auditorium.

Harold J. McCurry, general chairman of the centennial, and "Spray" Moore, chief Whiskerino, are in charge of arrangements for the day.

EFFORT TO LOCATE BODY OF MINE SHAFT VICTIM IS FRUITLESS

Searchers Friday had been unsuccessful in their efforts to recover from the shaft of the Griffith mine, near Diamond Springs, the body of William Ralph, who fell into the shaft Wednesday evening.

The shaft was being un-watered and it was reported that Ralph had gone to make an adjustment in the pump, when in some manner he fell into the shaft, in which there were some 600 feet of water.

The body is presumed to have become lodged beneath the surface.

Land Use Planning Aims Approved By Committee

Development of land use problems in the county, as suggested by the Federal Department of Agriculture and presented to the county land use planning committee at a meeting Thursday night through the University Agricultural Extension Service, was endorsed by the committee meeting.

In furtherance of the plan, a series of meetings will be held throughout the county. The schedule is now being prepared and will be announced as soon as completed.

Lester Frost, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Frost, leaves over the weekend for Berkeley to resume his studies at the University.

THREE SURRENDER AS PALS FALL BEFORE GUNS

Notorious Arthur Barker, 2 Other Kidnapers And Two Robbers Saw Through Cell Bars And Attempt Flight Under Cover Of Dense Fog

SAN FRANCISCO, (UP)—Five convicts, including Arthur Barker, member of the notorious Karpis-Barker gang of outlaws, made a desperate attempt to escape from Alcatraz rock today but were captured after guards opened fire, wounding two of them. Barker was one of the wounded.

A third convict suffered scratches and abrasions caused by this attempt to slide down a rocky point to the water.

The convicts sawed their way out of their cells and were almost in the swirling tides of San Francisco Bay when guards caught up with them.

Warden James A. Johnston identified the five as:

Arthur Barker, serving life for kidnaping; Dale Stampfill, serving life for kidnaping; Rufus McCain, 99 years for national bank robbery and kidnaping; Henri Young, 20 years for robbing a national bank; and William Martin, negro, 25 years for armed robbery of a postoffice.

Warden Johnston said Barker and Stampfill were shot. Barker was hit in the leg and head. Stampfill was struck in both legs. Their condition was reportedly serious.

McCain, Young and Martin surrendered after Barker and Stampfill fell.

"We do not know," the Warden said, "how the prisoners apparently managed to obtain a saw or how they got out of their cells unobserved."

All five were captured before they had a chance to get off "the rock"—the federal government's famous penitentiary in San Francisco Bay.

Indicating a carefully planned break, the attempt was made in a dripping fog—the thickest fog to blanket the San Francisco area in months.

A gigantic search for the fugitives was organized and under way when Warden Johnston announced that the five had been captured.

"They got out of a cell building about 4 a. m." Warden Johnston said. "A heavy fog enveloped the island."

"The fugitives attempted to get to the water but were defeated in the attempt, by guards."

"The convicts were so desperate in their efforts to get to the water, however, that two of them, Barker and Stampfill, were shot before they halted."

"The others then surrendered."

Lynn Haslam Awarded February Prize

The January meeting of the Farm Bureau directors, held Thursday night at the Farm Advisor's office, selected the drawing submitted by Lynn Haslam, of Pilot Hill, as the winner of the $1 award offered for the best design submitted for the regular center meeting notices each month.

Business of the meeting concerned a discussion of the plans for the annual membership enrollment, and discussion concerning recent changes in the trucking law. This last matter was brought up by V. H. Hamilton, and Chairman James A. Irving asked the Farm Advisor to obtain a copy of the law so that it may be available for review at the February meeting.

KANSAS OFFICERS START HOME WITH MAN IN FRAUD CASE

Officers Jack Evans and Everett Bell, of the Wichita, Kansas, police department, were here Thursday to take into custody Eugene Landbky, and return him to Kansas for trial.

Landbky, arrested by Sheriff Geo. M. Smith and Deputy Ralph Jones at the request of the Wichita police, is said to be wanted there on charges of falsifying sales aggregating about $2,000, and for writing worthless checks.

Declaration of their intention to wed was filed with the county clerk on Thursday by Surgeon F. Smith, 24, and Rae Stone, 21, both of Georgetown.

L. A. Raffetto, R. A. Patterson, Dr. L. B. Rante and Captain J. F. E. Bell left Friday morning for Garberville in response to word that the region abounds with steelhead which need catching.

Household Hint

Because soy beans contain so much protein and fat, they are good when fried in deep fat and salted, and served like salted nuts. Any of the good table varieties of soy beans may be used. Wash and soak the dry beans overnight, then drain and spread them out at room temperature until the surface is dry. Fry a few at a time in deep fat at 350 degrees F. for from eight to ten minutes. Drain on absorbent paper and sprinkle with salt while still warm.

Sports Parade

By HENRY MOLEMORE

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—It has long been the policy of this racing expert to announce his choice for the Kentucky derby months in advance. Last year, while the bluegrass was still blanketed with snow, I unhesitatingly came forward with Bull Lea. In 1937 parents were late in decorating their Christmas trees, so busy were they in plunking down their all on my pick, Military. The year before that the ducks flying south paused long enough to hoot and honk at my derby selection, whose name has escaped my memory and the record books.

Today I give you not only the winner of this year's Kentucky derby, but also the winner of the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap. His name is Porter's Mite, a three-year-old belonging to W. E. Boeing. Mr. Boeing is an airplane man, and he has built few planes that can fly faster than Porter's mite. The purchase of the island of Manhattan for $24 worth of costume jewelry was no greater bargain than Boeing got when he bought the Mite from John Hay Whitney for less than $7,500.

That was just a year ago, and since then the mighty mite has earned $77,000, won the classic Belmont future, and set a world's record for six and one-half furlongs. He is now at Santa Anita, the first future winner ever to campaign in the winter as a three-year-old. He has made one start since reaching here, in the Santa Maria stakes last Saturday, and he won it like the champion I think he is. Carrying 123 pounds he won so easily that Jockey Basil James never had to touch him with the whip.

Meat Economy

To extend a little meat, make a stew with meat and vegetables, or a meat pie; or brown the meat, add vegetables and bake a long time in a casserole. Rice, hot biscuit and potatoes make meat go farther. Make meat loaf, adding bread crumbs to chopped meat. An inexpensive meat, which lacks flavor, may often be combined with a meat or shoulder, with chopped ham; or chopped beef with sausage. Heart, liver and tongue are nutritious but usually inexpensive meats. A tart sauce, pepper or mustard may often be used to make insipid meat acceptable.

And he wasn't running with platters, either.

Now the Santa Maria isn't the derby and six furlongs isn't a mile and a quarter, which is the derby distance, but Porter's Mite finished the shorter race so strongly that there is no reason to believe that he can't go the route. After all, he is bred for distance. His father, a respectable taxpayer The Porter, could go the whole way, and has sired more than one router. Aneroid could run a distance, and so could Rosemont, who won the $100,000 handicap, and Toro, second to Reigh Count in a Kentucky Derby.

Porter's Mite will go to the post in the Kentucky Derby with the record book against him, because no future winner has ever won the bluegrass classic. Not even such future winners as Pompey, St. James, Top Flight, Chance Sun, Pompon and Menow could make the grade in the derby.

The general run of horsemen do not like either Porter's Mite or his greatest rival of 1938, El Chico, for a derby winner. They lean toward the Saratoga Stable's Volitant and E. R. Bradley's Benefactor. Volitant is a son of Display, who sired the mighty Discovery. Benefactor, a Blue Larkspur colt, ran the fastest three-quarters run at Pimlico last fall by horses of any age. Horsemen look on Chico and Porter's Mite as nothing but sprinters and prefer the staying power of Volitant and Benefactor over the derby distance.

However, your wisest horsemen can be wrong, or why would War Admiral have paid $10 when he won the derby, or Seabiscuit have been the under-dog against the Admiral at Baltimore?

I say Porter's Mite, and am giving this information early so that you can start a penny bank and place your savings squarely on his nose. If he wins, thank me. If he doesn't, well you're a sucker for having taken my word.

GRANGE NOTES

PLEASANT VALLEY

There were a number of members from the Pleasant Valley Grange who attended the county installation of officers, held at the I. O. O. F. Hall in Placerville, Friday night. There were some splendid speeches by the various Grange Masters, and the State Master, also several others, after which there was dancing and a delicious hot supper.

Last Sunday afternoon the Pleasant Valley Grange Home Economics Club met at the home of Mrs. A. Springer, who appointed Mrs. Ben Brown as secretary; Mrs. Tom Gordon as treasurer; also various committees were appointed.

Plans were discussed for future activities of the club, which will meet on the first Sunday of every month, at the home of one of the members, the next one being at the home of Mrs. R. W. McCoy, on February 5. Those present at the last meeting were Mrs. Tom Gordon, Mrs. Virgil Avansino, Miss Myrtle Avansino, Miss Edith Avansino, Miss Daisy Avansino, Mrs. June Atkins, Mrs. Ernest Stevens, Mrs. Ben Brown, Mrs. A. Springer and Mrs. R. W. McCoy.

POMONA MEETING

On Friday, January 6th, installation of all Grange officers took place at the Odd Fellows' Hall in Placerville. Installation services commenced at 8:30 p. m., and were conducted by Mr. Mark Hunt, treasurer of the State Grange.

State Master George Sehlmeier gave a very strong and sensible address on California agriculture. Senator Jespersen of San Luis Obispo county, also gave his support to the Grange and pledged his help. R. B. Moore, state supervisor of the California farm debt adjustment commission made us all a great deal more familiar with the serious problems that California agriculture has in store, and advised everyone who is in difficulties in regard to farm loans and danger of foreclosure, to get in touch with the local committee, headed by Carl Visman, chairman.

After a very nice supper, dancing was enjoyed by all until 2 a. m. Our earnest hope is that every farmer in El Dorado and Amador counties will join the Grange—an entirely independent farm organization—and give it their strong support. After all, we are a non-political, self-supporting unit of 80,000 members in California, and are certainly trying to do what is right.

In all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., a Lesson-Sermon was read Sunday, January 8, on the subject "Sacrament." The Golden Text was: "The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world" (John 6:33). Bible selections included the following passage from John 15:5, 8: "I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: without me ye can do nothing. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples."

A passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, was also included, which reads: as follows: "Through demonstrating his control over sin and disease, the great Teacher by no means relieved others from giving the requisite proofs of their own piety. He worked for their guidance, that they might demonstrate this power as he did and understand its divine Principle" (p. 25).

Peter Sees Christ's Glory

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Jan. 15 is Matthew 17:1-18; 2 Peter 1:16-18, the Golden Text being John 1:14, "We beheld His glory, as the glory of the Only Begotten of the Father.")

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
WITH MULTITUDES of people following Christ about and listening to His preachings, it probably was felt by Him that He must get away from the world sometimes and commune with His God. So, on this night of which we are told He took His three best friends, Peter, James and John, his brother, and went up into a high mountain to pray. The record says it must have been Mount Hermon, which rises 9,000 feet.

At any rate, while Jesus prayed apart from his companions, the three disciples went to sleep. They were awakened by a bright light, and they saw Jesus transfigured so that "His face did shine as the sun, and His raiment was white as the light." With Him the disciples saw two great Jewish leaders, Moses and Elias, the prophet. They were talking to Jesus about His coming death in Jerusalem. Then a cloud appeared, and out of the cloud a voice spoke and said: "This is my Beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear thou Him." You can imagine that the disciples were frightened at first, but Jesus came and touched them and told them not to fear. All their lives these men, especially Peter, remembered and pondered on this vision.

Have you ever seen a familiar face become transfigured with joy or inspired thought? It is something to remember. Plain human faces can reflect such a wondrous light that are transformed and plain features are made beautiful.

Gold Rush Shown In State's Farm Display At Fair

SACRAMENTO — The highlights of agricultural history in California together with a graphic presentation of the work performed for agriculture by the California Agricultural Department will be seen by visitors to the San Francisco-Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island in the department's exhibit now nearing completion.

Situated in the Hall of Agriculture, the department's display, built with funds allocated by the California commission from an appropriation made by the legislature for state participation, is a circular panorama.

As the visitor enters, the first scene shows the primitive Indians who knew little of cultivation and crops until the Mission fathers began their instructions in and about the units of the Franciscan chain. The arrival of Cabrillo, the discoverer of California, is depicted, as well as that colorful period in California's history when the main agricultural industry was the production of cattle. Passing from that period when cowhides and tallow were virtually the state's banknotes, the exhibit shows Fort Sutter, at Sacramento, established 100 years ago as the nucleus around which John Sutter hoped to build a vast farm colony. New Helvetia. Next to be seen is the period of the Gold Rush and the stimulus which agriculture received through the need of the Argonauts for fresh fruits and vegetables, the coming of the railroads, the development of irrigation, the start of cooperative marketing. The historical phase of the exhibit concludes with the modern farm.

The work of the State Department of Agriculture is depicted in an equally interesting fashion, embracing plant quarantine, insect and plant control, marketing, market news and crop reporting, fruit and vegetable standardization, recording of cattle brands, meat and dairy products inspection, seed testing, weed and rodent control, and other functions of the Department as provided by law.

Work on the exhibit has been underway on Treasure Island for several months by a crew of craftsmen under the direction of Clifford Clower, in charge of exhibits and illustrations for the Department.

Many works of reference and history were consulted in order that Agricultural development might be properly and accurately portrayed. The model of the railroad engine, known as "Old Huntington No. 1," was built to scale from the plans of the original locomotive. The model of San Gabriel mission, sometimes called "cradle of California agriculture," is also true to form.

Thus, in 100 feet of walking and looking, visitors of the department's exhibit will be able to see and to learn of the history of an industry which involves each year the production of nearly 200 crops and the production of wealth in excess of $600,000,000, together with the service, protection and regulation afforded that industry by various state laws administered by the California Department of Agriculture.
